

Maintaining the Project Quality is the prime consideration during execution of the project, and shall not be compromised by any way. At all time emphasis are given to all employees and Project Management personal to take responsibility to comply with quality related protocol.

Itihadians are encouraged to provide suggestions and constructive criticism in order to improve the work processes and the quality control procedures.

We , all employees at ITIHADI INFRA are committed to provide , develop and supply services to fulfill customer requirements and meet total customer satisfaction.

This achievement shall be through continual improvement in all areas of operation giving emphasis on :

- Innovative Process & Methodology Development
- Increase in Sales & Turnover
- Timely Delivery of the projects
- Constant Review of project performance to complete in the cost effective , best reasonable quality and timely completion for the benefit of the customers.

Date: 09-09-2009

Place: Dammam

Rupesh K. Sinha
President & CEO